

Indiana Extracts from Ohio Periodicals

Roger Lawton and Natalie Burriss

To widen its knowledge of genealogical information for Indiana, the Indiana Historical Society takes part in an exchange with genealogical and historical organizations across the country. The IHS sends out The Hoosier Genealogist: Connections in return for receiving the publications of other organizations. A volunteer with the IHS reads through the incoming publications to find listings of people with Indiana connections. The genealogical data below comes from the publications of the Family Genealogical Exchange and the Ohio Genealogical Society, both in Ohio. The names and issues of the periodicals are listed with the data, along with article titles, authors where specified, and years of publication. All data is transcribed exactly as it appears in the publications except where noted. Where information is needed for clarity, the compilers have inserted it in brackets. All periodical issues listed below are available for further research at the Indiana State Library in Indianapolis.

“Following the Path of Pleasant (Chapman) Cain”

page 8

The 1830 Harrison Co VA census reads:

Arnold Cain

1 male 0–4 (1826–1830)
1 male 5–9 (1821–1825)
1 male 10–14 (1816–1820)
1 male 15–19 (1811–1815)
1 male 30–39 (1791–1800) (Arnold)
1 female 20–29 (1801–1810) (Pleasant)

The 1850 census shows them in Porter Co Indiana and reads:

Arnold Cain	60 VA (wagon maker)
Pleasant	44 VA
Rebecca	18 VA
James	16 VA
Eli	13 OH
Thomas	11 IN
Caroline	07 IN
George	06 IN
Taylor	01 IN

In the 1870 census Pleasant is in Bureau Co Illinois, apparently Arnold has died. The census reads:

Pleasant Cain	64 VA
Taylor	21 IN
Charles	18 IN
Eli	36 OH
Rachel	35 IN

George Knox	15 IN
Frank	11 IN
Harry E. Cain	02 IL
Alveretta Patch	12 IL

By 1880 Pleasant is residing in the household of her son, Eli in Tampico, Whiteside Co Illinois.

It reads:

Eli Cain	44 OH WV WV
Rachel	40 OH OH OH
Harry	12 IL OH OH
Levi	09 IL OH OH
George Knox	23 IN WV OH (step-son)
Frank	22 WV WV WV (step-son)
Pleasant Cain	75 mother

Thomas Cain is residing next door and the census reads:

Thomas Cain	30 IN Wagon Maker
Matilda	26 IN
George E.	03 IN
Lillie	01 IN

Thus by conjecture, the following are issue of Arnold Cain and Pleasant J. (Chapman) Cain:

1. Rebecca Cain, b. 1832 VA
2. James Cain, b. 1834 VA
3. Eli Cain, b. 1837 OH; m. Rachel?-Knox, b. 1840 (she m. (1) Anderson Knox)
4. Thomas Cain, 1839 IN; m. Matilda?
5. Caroline Cain, b. 1843 IN
6. George Cain, b. 1844 IN
7. Taylor Cain, b. 1849 IN
8. Charles Cain, b. 1852 IN

John McDougall and Margaret (Peggy) Stockton

[Indiana connections only]

Children of John and Peggy (Stockton) McDougall were (from Stockton unless otherwise noted):¹⁴

1. William Creighton McDougall was born on 19 Apr 1802 at Chillicothe, Ohio. He married as his first wife Syntitha Reagan on 18 Jul 1822 at Marion County, Indiana.¹⁵
3. Georgiana McDougall was born circa 1805 at Chillicothe, Ohio. She married Dr. Livingston Dunlap on 12 Jul 1823 at Marion County, Indiana.¹⁵ Further record of them has not been found.
4. Susan McDougall was born circa 1808 at Chillicothe, Ross County, Ohio. She married William H. Morrison on 8 May 1832 at Marion County, Indiana.¹⁵ Further record of them has not been found.
7. George Palmer McDougall was born circa 1820 in Chillicothe, Ohio. His birthdate is calculated based on his age in the 1870 census.¹⁶ He married Louisa Palmer, daughter of Nathan and Chloe (Sackett) Palmer¹⁵ He went to California overland in 1845, lived at Santa Cruz and Gilroy. He was a trader in Sacramento in 1848–1849. In 1867 he was in Patagonia looking for gold, but returned to Indiana and in 1869 settled in Washington, DC.

Charles McDougall & Maria Hanson

I found a transcript of an old newspaper article about the widow Sally Hanson and her five daughters (including Maria) arriving in Indianapolis in the winter of 1826.¹⁸ The Indianapolis marriage records gave me Maria's first marriage to Dr. Kenneth Scudder,¹⁹ and after his death six months later, her second marriage to Dr. Charles McDougall.

Once I had found Maria in Indianapolis, it was the clue I needed to trace the entire McDougall family to the same city. I found Peggy Stockton McDougall and her son George living in a residential hotel owned by Nathan Palmer in the 1850 census.²⁰ In the 1850 Census, George McDougall was married to a woman named Louisa. I was able to figure out that Louisa was the daughter of Nathan Palmer from the Marion County, Indiana Marriage records.⁸

Persistence in searching online finally led me to an electronic copy of "Memoranda Concerning some Branches of the Hawkins Family and Connections," by John Parker Hawkins.²¹ He recorded that Sally Hanson's first name was really Sarah and that her maiden name was Callis. He traced her father Francis Callis into Virginia and his father William to France. General Hawkins was a descendant of Sally's first marriage to Edward Waller who died in 1791 in Kentucky. He wrote that Sally married Col. Luke Hanson 13 November 1795 in Bourbon Co., KY, confirmed by Kentucky marriage records.²²

Charles McDougall was born in Chillicothe, OH 21 September 1804, son of John and Peggy (Stockton) McDougall.²⁵ He married Maria (Hanson) Scudder in Indianapolis 15 April 1830. Maria was born 7 May 1803 Paris, Bourbon Co, KY daughter of Luke and Sarah (Callis) Hanson.²⁶

Maria Hanson McDougall died in at [sic] Jefferson Barracks in St. Louis, MO 18 August 1876.^{12, 16} Charles died in Fairfield, VA 25 Jul 1885.^{31, 32} They are buried together in Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in St. Louis on a hillside overlooking the Mississippi River.³³

Children of Dr. Charles McDougall and Maria Griffith Hanson were as follows (data from Hawkins except as noted):³⁴

1. Henry Livingston McDougall
2. Georgiana McDougall
3. Charles McDougall
4. Josephine Maria McDougall was born on 18 Jun 1839 at Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana. She married as her first husband Col David Hillhouse Buel, son of Rev. Samuel Buel and Jane Eliza Wilmer, on 28 Sep 1861 at Poughkeepsie, Dutchess County, New York.^{35,36} She married as her second husband Oliver Prince Buel, son of David Buel and Harriet Hillhouse, on 20 Dec 1875. She died 13 Oct 1925 in Washington, DC.³⁷
5. Francis Pamela McDougall
6. Capt. Thomas Mower McDougall

John McDougall

John McDougall, the fourth son of John and Peggy (Stockton) McDougall was born in 1818 in Chillicothe, Ohio.⁶⁸ He married Jane Maria (Jennie) Palmer, daughter of Nathan and Chloe (Sackett) Palmer on 13 Jul 1841.⁶⁹ Finding the correct identity for Jennie was another multi-year adventure. Stockton listed John's wife as Jennie Hanson. In my quest to find Maria Hanson, I was also searching for Jennie. When I finally found Maria with her mother and sisters in Indianapolis, there was no Jennie. It was only after discovering the relationship of the McDougalls and the Palmers, and careful study of the Indiana marriage records that I found the marriage of John McDougall and Jane Maria Palmer. Stockton was right, Jane/Jennie was the sister of one of John's brother's wives, just had the wrong one! I knew I was on the right track about Jennie when I found her living with her brother Marshall Palmer in one of the two records of her in the 1860 census.⁷⁰ In the second record, she was with her husband in San Francisco.⁷¹ After her death, her children appeared in census records in Indiana, living with other Palmer family members. My conclusions have been confirmed by her biography on the First Ladies of California website.⁷²

John McDougall was a merchant for several years. When the Mexican war began, he was Superintendent of Indiana State Prison. He volunteered and became Captain of Indiana Volunteer Co with Scott's army. At the close of the war, he went to California and joined his brother George at San Jose. He was a member of the first provisional legislature in 1849. He was elected first Lt. Governor of California on 13 Nov 1849, and then served out the term of Peter Burnett as the second Governor of the state after Burnett's resignation.⁷³ His inaugural address is online at <http://governors.library.ca.gov/addresses/02-McDougall.html>. On 1/12/1852 had a duel with A. C. Russell, editor of the Picayune (wounded him only). In October 1856, he was arrested but acquitted for fraud. He died 30 March 1866 of apoplexy brought on by alcoholism (age 48).

Jennie was not happy with her life in California and traveled back to Indiana to be with her mother for the birth of her second child Caroline. Her diary from that trip is reproduced in the book "Ho for California" by Sandra Myres. Jennie eventually returned to California and died there 26 May 1862 in childbirth.⁷

Elizabeth Ellen Garber was born on 5 October 1848 in Montgomery County, Ohio. Her family had migrated to Miami County, Indiana,² by the time she was married, since Elizabeth’s marriage record stated she was married to David Jacobs in Miami County in 1868.³ Elizabeth and David Jacobs had four daughters and a son, who apparently lived and died in Indiana,⁴ and I have visited Elizabeth and David’s grave at Mount Hope Cemetery in Peru, Montgomery County.⁵

The death record⁶ not only listed Elizabeth’s parents, but was signed by Maggie Stroop, a daughter. Apparently, Elizabeth died while visiting Maggie’s home in Zanesville, Muskingum County, Ohio, and her body was transported back to Indiana for burial.

Maggie May Jacobs was born 19 January 1874; married John Hoover Stroop in November 1903⁷; and was buried with John in Metzger Cemetery⁸, all in Miami County, Indiana.

[. . .] After their marriage, John and Maggie Stroop had moved to Ohio and were proprietors of a small pottery company in Zanesville called the Bohemian Pottery Company. John and Maggie’s Bohemian Pottery Company operated from 1900–1918¹⁰ and was known to manufacture kitchenware.

The Stroop family left Ohio in 1918 and moved to Alabama,¹⁷ due to John's decline in health. At some point, in life or perhaps in death, the Stroops returned to Miami County, Indiana, where they were both buried.
